News Release

HPD Investigating Malicious Wounding

February 28, 2013

The Harrisonburg Police Department is currently investigating a malicious wounding that occurred in the 1700 block of East Market Street. At approximately 5:20 p.m., officers with HPD responded to a report of a male who had been struck by a vehicle. Upon arrival, officers discovered a male victim with numerous injuries. The victim was taken to Rockingham Memorial Hospital and then transported to the University of Virginia Medical Center. No update is available at this time on the condition of the victim.

The driver of the suspect vehicle was on location at the time of the officer's arrival and was detained as part of the investigation. Charges against the driver are pending.

More information will be released as it becomes available.

Anyone in the community who has information or was a witness to this incident is asked to contact the Harrisonburg Police Department.

Callers are able to remain anonymous by calling Crime Solvers at 540-574-5050. Tipsters may also text "HPD" plus their tip to CRIMES (274637).
